

TELEPATHY CARDS

Any one of several unprinted business cards is signed by a spectator while your back is turned. Even though the spectator places the card face down and mixes them and changes their order on the table, you turn around and instantly sign the back of the very same card he wrote on.

- No special pens, no marks on any card!
- The magician can even go outside the room!
- The spectator himself mixes the cards!
- Can be repeated over and over again!